

Personal Highlight Videos & Game Tapes

Hoop Mountain, the leading exposure Basketball Event Promoter in the country, proudly offers the service of producing Personal Highlight Videos through its partner, the highly regarded Crusader 22 Productions. The 13 franchises of Hoop Mountain all offer services to student athletes beyond the playing experience – foremost being a Recruiting Service helping place high school athletes in college.

With the prominence of the social networks in the activities of our every day life, college coaches have naturally turned to the Internet to find athletes through watching highlights of games and the players' Personal Highlight Videos in addition to their traditional sources of information: scouting services and seeing players in person. The competition for scholarships and spots on college rosters has never been as fierce as it is today with more players competing for opportunities. A highlight video is now a standard tool for players; a professionally produced personal highlight video is a smart decision to get noticed. While it cannot make you play better it can make you look better.
